

2021 Judicial Endorsements

Commonwealth Partners Chamber of Entrepreneurs endorses the following candidates for Pennsylvania's statewide judicial races:

Supreme Court (1 seat)

✓ Commonwealth Court Judge Kevin Brobson

Judge Kevin Brobson is an exceptional judge who respects the rule of law and believes in upholding the laws as they are written—not rewriting them to fit a political ideology. He has served on Commonwealth Court since 2010.

Superior Court (1 seat)

✓ Chester County Attorney Megan Sullivan

Megan Sullivan has 20 years of legal experience, both as a criminal prosecutor and as a civil attorney. She formerly served in the Chester County District Attorney's office, and her scope of experience would be a solid addition to our Superior Court.

Commonwealth Court (2 seats)

- ✓ McKean County Attorney Stacy Wallace
- ✓ Commonwealth Court Judge Drew Crompton

Stacy Wallace is an attorney, small business owner, and president of the McKean County Bar Association. She believes in exercising judicial restraint and upholding the rule of law.

Judge Drew Crompton is currently serving on Commonwealth Court after being appointed to fill a vacancy in 2019. As he was an appointee, he must stand for election to a full term.
